INDIANA HIT HARD
21 Hoosiers Killed; Cold and Flood Add Horror to Situation.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago—Sweeping northward through the middle Western states, a storm which had its origin in the Rocky Mountain region Saturday, had passed over Ohio Tuesday, leaving in its wake death and much destruction. A loss of nearly 50 lives was attributed to the storm, which developed considerable energy as it progressed eastward, taking in many places the form of tornadoes. Damage to property will mount into millions.

Accompanied by rains which sent streams already swollen, coursing far beyond their usual channels, the storm brought added suffering and inconvenience to some communities which for several days have been affected by flood conditions.

Cold Follows Storm
A drop in the temperature to below the seasonal normal, added to the discomfort of families whose homes having been destroyed by wind or made uninhabitable by flood and who are now living in tents or improvised shelter.

Indiana apparently felt the full effect of wind storms Monday. In that state 21 persons are known to have met death in different communities. Early Monday morning the storm centered in Illinois. Striking a number of villages in the darkness, tornadoes wrought havoc to many homes and such reports as were available from agricultural communities which had been stripped of nearly all means of communication indicated that 22 persons had been killed.

Two Tornadoes Hit
As the storm passed over Indiana there were two distinct tornado belts. The one in the southern part sustained the most damage, but in the northern part of the state there was a wind swept strip in which the loss of life was heavy. Warren county, in the western part of the state, reported the death of 12 lives. Four met death in Madison county in the central portion of the state.

The death toll was greatest in central Illinois. The villages of Ingalls and Clinton, not far from Champaign, were badly wrecked and several persons were killed. Other fatalities in this state were in small rural communities.

The reported figures of known dead at noon Tuesday, stood as follows:

State	Dead	Injured
Illinois	12	100

The iron door was pried open with a heavy automobile spring. Entering the basement, men removed the main door, which separated them from the first floor.

Wolf was seen in the jail Sunday night. He was three years ago with a brother.

Tailor in Business Here
60 Years.

J. L. Ford, 88, the oldest merchant in Janesville and one of the oldest in Wisconsin, died shortly before 3 p. m. Monday at the home of his son, Herbert A. Ford, 209 Milton avenue, after two weeks' illness with pneumonia.

Records of the Masonic lodge show that Mr. Ford was the oldest Mason in Janesville, having become a member in 1862. He was among the oldest in Wisconsin.

For more than 60 years he has conducted a retail clothing store and tailoring shop in Janesville, the last 20 years of which he was in partnership with his son. He was widely known throughout Southern Wisconsin as a successful business man, a loyal churchman and one of the oldest members of the Masonic lodge and the Knights of Pythias.

Although unable to take a very active part in the business the last few years in account of defective hearing, nevertheless he made daily visits to the store and took an active interest in it and the city generally up to the last. He had a kindly smile and a cheery greeting for everybody.

Came Here in 1858
Mr. Ford was born in Rutland, Vt., Dec. 24, 1833 and left home when a young man to learn a tailoring trade in Boston and later in Chicago. He came to Janesville in 1858 to cut for the old tailoring firm of Behlin & Fouts.

Shortly afterward he became employed in the mill store of the Payne & Hastings Woolen Mills, now the Rock River Woolen Mills. The company at that time conducted a store on North Main street where the Gazette was formerly located. The woolen mills decided to discontinue the store, Mr. Ford bought it out in 1862 and from that time until his death he was one of the leading merchants of Janesville.

32 Years on Bridge
He continued the store at its North Main street location for several years and then moved to a building on the site now occupied by the First National bank. Later the store was moved across the street to the building now occupied by the Army Goods store where it remained for 20 years.

For the last 32 years the Ford store has been located at 8 West Milwaukee street. Mr. Ford took his son into business with him in 1895.

Mr. Ford was treasurer and deacon of the Congregational church many years.

Married 56 Years Ago.
He was married in 1866 to Louise Alden, school-mate of Frances Willard, who died Feb. 16, 1921, at the age of 75. Mrs. Ford came to Janesville in 1853.

Two children, Miss Janet and Mrs. Fred Parker, died several years ago. Surviving Mr. Ford are: Herbert A. Ford, Janesville, his son; Fred Parker, Chicago, a son-in-law; and three grandchildren, John, Louise and Wilma, all of Janesville.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at Oak Hill chapel, Rev. Frank J. Scribner, officiating. Services at the grave will be conducted by the Masonic lodge.

DECLARES WILSON

Letter on Federal Reserve Bill Verified by Attorney for Missouri.

(By Associated Press.)
St. Louis—Lee McWhorter, attorney and supporter of Senator James A. Reed, Tuesday repeated his statement that he had seen a copy of a letter by former President Wilson praising Reed's attitude on the federal reserve bill which the former executive Monday night denied existence.

McWhorter said he also had seen a letter from William C. McAdoo, son-in-law of Wilson, written when McAdoo was secretary of the treasury, commending Reed's work on the federal reserve bill.

In a letter, the former president denied he had ever written such a letter.

It did have a difference with the president, entirely good natured, over the federal reserve bill. Senator Reed's statement, given out Monday night, said.

Senator Reed explained he had insisted that hearings should be given on the federal bill, while Wilson, then president, wished the bill passed without the hearings.

As a result of the hearings, the bill was amended hundreds of times, the senator's statement said.

It was after the hearings, according to Senator Reed's statement, that he received the letter of praise from the former president.

GREEN IN FAVOR
Richardson Amendment Carries and All Factions Give It Support.

Settlement of present difficulties on the Rock county tuberculosis sanatorium question was made at the monthly session of the county board by the unanimous passage of an amendment offered by M. P. Richardson, Janesville, to the Christian-Sensen resolution, providing that the chairman of the special sanatorium committee and the building committee together with members of the tri-county committee shall confer with Green and Wagoner county boards chairman and that these boards shall decide whether or not they wish to enter into an agreement on the question with the tri-county plan.

It is the plan of Mr. Richardson that these boards shall hold a special meeting and that definite action on the tri-county plan must then be secured. The Rock county body may then decide whether it wishes to enter into or build a single county building. This was agreeable to all concerned and was then amended to attach the original motion of Mr. Christiansen was carried.

"I believe everyone wants to do everything right and proper in connection with the sanatorium question," said Mr. Richardson, who was absent Friday when the Christian-Sensen resolution providing that the special sanatorium committee and the building committee shall confer with Green and Wagoner county boards chairman and that these boards shall decide whether or not they wish to enter into an agreement on the question with the tri-county plan.

Should the county boards of Walworth and Green county decide in favor of the tri-county plan, a new committee of three must be appointed.

So. Janesville Hotel Man Is Re-Arrested

Parker Putnam, South Janesville hotel proprietor, was re-arrested Monday afternoon, this time upon complaint of Sheriff Cash & Whipple for the alleged sale of liquor on March 1. The new complaint contains the eight words which, omitted from the first one, resulted in Putnam's dismissal two weeks ago.

The re-arrested by police Saturday night of North Franklin street for possession of liquor were all held for trial following their preliminary examinations. Monday afternoon, William Brown's trial is set for April 23, James Horn, May 1, and William McCormick, May 2.

George Haugen, Stoughton, pleaded not guilty to an information filed against him Tuesday morning for violation of the liquor laws and his trial was set for May 8, James Clancy to appear for him.

Committee on Milk Includes
Janesville Man

Chicago.—Milk producers from Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana are meeting in Chicago Tuesday with representatives of the American Farm Bureau federation in an effort to determine a fixed price for the cost of milk production and to bring harmony between producers in Chicago territory.

A committee has been appointed to make an investigation and include C. V. Gregory, Green Bay, Wis.; H. C. Hemmingsway, Janesville, Wis.; A. C. Stoen, Bassett, Wis.

It is not probable that the immediate effect of the decisions of the committee will be to lower prices to consumers, members of the committee said, but it will bring producers into harmony and enable them to get a reasonable price for milk.

Farwell Will Stand Trial on Murder Charge

Madison.—The plea of insanity which Hartwell Farwell, Vienna, Wis., farmer, confessed slayer of Philip Houston, whose body he attempted to burn in a haystack near Portage early in February, was rejected by the jury Monday by his attorneys.

Farwell will now go to trial April 24 to answer the charge of first degree murder with a defense built on a plea of self-defense to save his own life and to protect his sister's honor and his family name.

In a statement to the court, accompanying the motion to withdraw the insanity plea, attorneys said the abnormal physical and mental state of the defendant at the time of his arraignment "was due to the harrowing experiences he had undergone both before and after his arrest, and not to insanity."

Russ-German Pact
Starts Bitter War,
Wrecks Conference

Genoa.—The allies have decided that Germany, having effected her own arrangement with Russia in the treaty signed Sunday at Rapallo, is debarred from further participation in the discussion of the conditions of agreement between Russia and the various other countries represented at the economic conference.

(By Associated Press)
Genoa.—The consternation caused by the German-Russian coup including the treaty at Rapallo supplanting the Brest-Litovsk pact showed no signs of abating as the economic conference delegates continued their deliberations Tuesday.

On the contrary as the different national groups examined the text of the new agreement and deliberated on its possible effect upon the future balance of power in Europe, they were impressed with the deep importance of the signing of this separate treaty.

The prophets who, when the economic conference was inaugurated, predicted that it would result either in great good or disaster to Europe, were inclined today to take the view that the congress seemed to be headed in the direction of disaster.

(By Associated Press.)
Paris.—A high official of the government declared this afternoon there was no possibility of continuing the discussions at Genoa unless the Russo-German treaty were cancelled. Even if it were annulled he declared, the moral effect of two of the parties to the Genoa conference, many members on the side to forestall all the conference work, would remain.

Decorum, Jan. Elmer Van Brocklin, star witness for the state in the trial of B. F. Kneeskern, was on the stand when court convened Tuesday morning.

Van Brocklin, brother of Charles Van Brocklin, who with the latter's wife, was shot to death last December, testified late Monday that he was driven away from his brother's cabin by Kneeskern on the afternoon of December 11, 1921, the day the murders were committed.

Van Brocklin said he approached the cabin about 2 o'clock and that when he reached a point 50 or 60 rods east of it, Kneeskern darted out of the structure, saw the witness coming and rushed back into the shack, returning with a shot gun.

He intercepted Van Brocklin a short distance from the cabin, the latter testified, and told him to come in and see the cabin.

Van Brocklin said he returned to the home of a neighbor where he had been visiting and that the last he saw of Kneeskern, the cattle burr was seen.

Apparently the Germans were deeply disappointed at not being able to take part in the private conference of allied leaders with the very thing the conference wished to avoid.

Step Toward Division
Prime Minister Lloyd George himself went so far as to say the pact was a step in the direction of dividing Europe into separate camps, the very thing the conference wished to avoid.

Richardson's Resignation
on Equalization Board
Demanded by Merriman

Fire which has smoldered since last fall, broke into flames at the morning session of the county board Tuesday, when Supervisor William J. Callahan bluntly stated that he objected to M. P. Richardson, continuing as chairman of the tax equalization committee. Mr. Richardson has been a member of the committee for more than ten years and chairman most of the time. For more than an hour there was a wordy battle between Dr. C. W. Merriman and Supervisor Richardson in which charges were made and denied.

Callahan Urges
Broad Interest in Education

Every community should be interested not only in the schools of its own locality, but in those in every nook and corner of the state and of other states, because "ignorance cannot be quarantined at home," said John Callahan, state superintendent of schools, at the Rotary club at luncheon at the hotel Tuesday. He declared the public should not consider merely taxation for school purposes, but should credit on the other side of the ledger what education has given to the state. Declaring that without proper schooling, a nation does not progress, he pointed to Russia.

With respect to present school methods, he said there has been too much "cranking" and not enough development of clear thinking.

ROCKFORD WOMAN SOUGHT; BELIEVED
MENTALLY STRICKEN

Rockford, Ill.—Authorities of northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin are searching for Mrs. Bert Anderson, who mysteriously disappeared from her home here last Saturday night. She is believed to have wandered away in mental distress. Mrs. Anderson is 24 and is a daughter of former Alderman Nels Olson and a sister of Fred C. Olson, coroner of Winnebago county.

Missing from her home at 1515 Charles street, Rockford, since Saturday night, Mrs. Lillian Anderson is being sought in Janesville and Beloit by her husband who said she had been acting queer last week. She is 34, five feet seven inches tall, weighing 135 pounds, having dark brown hair. When last seen, she wore a blue dress, black plush coat, dark hat with green crown, and high black shoes.

WOMAN BURNED
Mrs. Nancy Boyle, 302 N. Jackson street, was slightly injured and a touring car, owned by her husband, who also was in the car, was destroyed when it broke into flames at the city limits of Beloit Saturday night. Mrs. Boyle is recovering from the injuries received when she jumped from the car. Mr. Boyle was uninjured.

MILLER IS SEATED.
George L. Miller was by a recount of the election returns from the plain ward of that city given the election certificate and seated as a member of the county board Tuesday, from Beloit.

Hughes Points to Constitution; Brandegee Seeks More Power for Congress.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington—Can a United States senator communicate with a foreign government direct and without resort to the usual channels of diplomacy through the president and secretary of state?

Formal charges have been filed against Senator Charles McNary of Oregon for doing so on the ground that he has violated a statute of ancient date as 1789. The case has many interesting angles to it and turns largely upon the meaning of the words "United States government." That's a historic controversy. Does the "government" mean only the president and his cabinet or does it include the United States Senate? The act of 1789 declares no citizen shall communicate with a foreign government "without the permission of the United States government."

Secretary Hughes contends that the words "United States government" mean what the constitution says they mean. In other words wherever the words are applied to something which the constitution says the executive shall do, it means the executive.

Drastic Slump
in N. Y. Stocks

(By Associated Press.)
New York.—The stock market was subjected to a drastic liquidation movement Tuesday for the first time in several weeks. Leaders of almost every group, rails excepted, fell back 1 to 5 points. Sales for the session were estimated at 7,000,000 shares, but the supply of stocks throughout the day was in excess of the demand.

European affairs, as reflected in the treaty between Germany and Russia, occasioned some uneasiness as evidenced by the heaviness of foreign exchanges.

Oil led the day's setback, but steel, equipment, motors and other issues were almost equally vulnerable.

Brown Attempts Jail Delivery?

Joseph Brown has made another, unsuccessful attempt to escape, it is believed.

Investigation of Sheriff Cash Whipple into the actions of Brown, who broke his parole and is now lodged in the county jail, showed that a pin had been removed from a lock on the upper floor, where Brown is imprisoned, and that some of the bricks had been tampered with. Brown was first arrested for violating the prohibition laws.

Chief Charles Newman received word late Monday of a jail delivery in Juneau where Charles Wolf, 24, escaped from the Dodge county jail at 2 a. m. Police here have a description of him.

Farm Bureau Official Information News for Farmers

GOOD STOCK BRINGS OUR BEST IN HERD

Results of Better Care Evident on Milton Holstein Farm.

There is no question but what well selected, well cared for pure breeds will give much greater returns than will grade cattle. However, Rock county farmers know from their experience that purebred cows with good treatment will not yield as good as grades from blooded sires. There is something about blooded stock that inspires dairy development. Good stock generally brings out the best there is in a farmer. A high production cow can trans-

WORKS FOR CHILD MUST KEEP WELL

Mothers in a Like Situation Should Read This Letter
from Mrs. Enrico

Chicago, Illinois.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a serious trouble. I had tried all the doctors and all said the same—operation. At first I only felt the pain on my left side, but later I seemed to feel it over the whole side. I am a power sewing-machine operator and have a little girl to support. I work in a tailor shop and that line of work has been very slack this year and I am home part of the time. I do not like to take any chances, so I consulted my friends, and one lady said, 'Take Lydia Pinkham's medicine, so I did. I have felt better right along and am in good health to go to work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash to all.'—Mrs. Mary Enrico, 459 N. Carpenter St., Chicago.

Often the mother is called to support her children and good health is necessary. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just the medicine you can depend upon. It is a medicine for women's ailments and the relief it brought Mrs. Enrico it may bring to you.

for the same degree of excellence upon her granddaughter through her son. The truer the breed, so much stronger will be the powers of hereditary transmission.

Good Blood Tells
There is a farm near Milton owned by Dr. L. M. Babcock and R. V. Hurley, where there are exceptional young stock. The start was made with seven head in 1918 and the results are apparent. Hurley has taken care of the cattle and does not have to show a long pedigree list. The heifers and the calves stand out as being desirable stock. The cure and good breeding shows in quality.

The head of the herd is King Segis spottford Konigen. This bull combines the strains of some of the greatest producers in the Holstein breed. His sire is from the former world's champion Lady Newman and his dam is from the former world's champion King Segis Pontiac Konigen a $25,000 bull, a son of King Segis Pontiac. The dam of the Milton farm bull is Queen Pontiac Albina.

King Segis Konigen has plenty of milk records and the strain comes from the famous Dutchland farms.

Case of the Stock
But one sometimes tries of endless pedigrees and milk records. The proof of a sire is in the herd. One of the foundation cows in this herd, Pauline Spottford Pontiac Lass, has had two daughters, three granddaughters and three great granddaughters, nearly of whom are still in the herd.

Every one of them are good producers. There is one cow in the herd good enough for any show and the young stock is worthy of a chance at the fair ribbons. The sire is a big animal. An expert judge might pick a few faults in his make-up but the point is that he has sired some excellent daughters, who make great showing at the milk pail. This farm bears watching in improving Holstein in Rock county.

Pioneer Dairy Farmer
One of the oldest Holstein breeders in Rock county is E. W. Tess, Milton, who started with the blooded black and whites 35 years ago. His son E. M. Tess now has charge of the herd and farm. These have been raised on the farm. The sire used is Prince Johann Cornucopia, a four year old. One of the best cows in the entire herd of 43 head has been consigned to the Rock county sale. E. W. Tess has no doubt of the fact the Holstein committee selected from among the best in the herds instead of the poorest should look over the cow.

Over to another section is the farm of Henry A. Wenham, one of the pioneer Shorthorn breeders of Rock county. He has developed the Bates strain until now he has a herd of all red Shorthorns. The herd bull is Royal Kirk Livingston bought in Erie, Penn., by J. L. Torrey.

The farm home of Wenham is one of the most level farms in Rock county. The glacier rocks found in the bottom of a pond were used for the walk. There is a good color combination of the rocks and thick mortar, making the home decidedly distinct.

Spring Field Work
Delayed by Weather
Madison—Spring plowing and planting in Wisconsin has already been delayed more than a week by cold and wet weather. It says in some northern counties the frost is just out of the ground.

With the floods in the eastern and southern part of the state, some fields are said to have suffered severe damage. Seeding of oats and spring wheat is reported as already one week late.

Extensive experiments have shown that under certain conditions yellow corn has a decided superiority over white corn for feeding swine, due to the fact that yellow variety is rich in fat-soluble vitamins.

Recent developments in nutrition experiments at the station are said to emphasize the high value of yellow corn for all classes of swine in the winter when not on pasture. A decided advantage is reported to be gained by adding a small proportion of alfalfa to the ration for growing, fattening pigs.

On account of the importance said to lie in dairy by-products in stock feeding in Wisconsin special attention has been given during the past few weeks to study of the value of these feeds, according to report of the station. Experiments carried on at the station have shown that which demonstrate the importance of dairy products in profitable pork production under Wisconsin conditions.

The results of all feeding experiments on swine will be explained on Saturday.

Printer's Ink Is Great Selling Force

—Wm. Wrigley, Jr.
That business is improving in the East and that this condition is spreading to the Middle West by degrees, is the opinion of William Wrigley, Jr., president of the William Wrigley, Jr. Co., Chicago.

The good old American dollar is coming back into its own. People from one end of the nation to the other are getting around to the idea that the only basis for real prosperity is an honest day's work for a fair day's wage.

The United States as a whole has been in "business" against the past five years. Prices up to recently, were out of all sense of proportion for the value received. The greatest cure for hard times, Mr. Wrigley says is to stop talking about hard times and to work and keep money and goods circulating.

The year 1921 was regarded as a pretty bad period for loss of concern in the East and Middle West, Mr. Wrigley. "For us it was the best year in the thirty years I have been in the chewing gum manufacturing industry."

"We are spending $1,000 a day this year to push Wrigley's Chewing Gum."

"The judicious use of printer's ink is the greatest selling force in the world. If you do business on a wide basis, or even in a few blocks, you have got to keep the people interested or you won't sell them your goods."

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville—Jesse Dyve broke one of the bones of his wrist Saturday night while attempting to crank a car at one of the sawpits. Mrs. H. H. Dyve, his wife, is recovering in the city hospital, Janesville, where she went Saturday. The members of the Lutheran choir gave an Easter concert at the church Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. William Dornier spent Sunday at home. Mr. Dornier is in Janesville. Orfordville was without light for a short time during the heavy thunder storm Sunday night. A fuse having burned out at the substation, Janesville, Mr. T. W. Nuzum, Janesville, was in the village a short time Monday afternoon. James Mow went to Janesville Monday afternoon to submit to an operation at Mercy hospital, where he was recovering from the bank on account of illness. She is under the doctor's care. Special Easter services were held at the Methodist church Sunday. The offering amounted to $35.

LABOR ECONOMIST BLAMES MONEY FOR RAILROADS' FLIGHT

Washington.—Existence of an "industrial railway-banking" combination, headed by J. P. Morgan and company and in control of railroads, coal mines, banks, steel and other industrial enterprises, was charged Monday before the senate interstate commerce committee by W. F. Lauck, economist for the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Lauck's statement, made in continuation of the committee's railroad "hearings," was a scathing indictment that financiers rather than operating officials, were responsible for the present plight of the railroads.

He opposed vigorously reduction of railroad rates, and charged that railroad financiers were attempting to "deflate" railroads as well as labor.

Over 17 Million Jan Used Yearly
Careless Shampooing
Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisided in a cup of glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisided.—Advertisement.

IZZY AND MOE GET THE BARKEEPS COLD

Two Champion Bootleg Sleuths

New York.—Disguised as tourists, their motor car covered with mud and dirt, and their faces smeared with dust, Izzy Einstein and Moe Smith, New York's most versatile prohibition agents, today raided nearly two score cafes, arresting twenty-six proprietors and employees and seizing liquor valued by them at $30,000.

It was the first Sabbath liquor raid ever made here by federal agents. Seven nationalities were reported in the list of prisoners, who were rounded up after several hours' work. The biggest haul was made in a former saloon at 393 Amsterdam avenue.

Izzy and Moe breezed into the place this morning. "Old you enjoy that speech last night?" asked Izzy of Moe as they approached the bar.

"I did not," replied Moe, disgustedly. "There was too much prohibition in it."

"What will you have, boys?" asked the proprietor, smiling. "A little hooch," brazenly replied Izzy.

The proprietor poured the liquor in a glass and the two agents took it into test tubes, which they carried in their vest pockets. The owner, stunned by surprise, was then placed under arrest.

A search of the place, Einstein said, revealed fifty-five cases of champagne and other imported wines, several cases of whiskey and scores of bottles of assorted liquors.

Only Minor Changes as Bowling Tourney Comes to Close

MADISON KEGLERS FAIL TO SMASH INTO HIGH SPOTS

With no changes in the standings, the Southern Wisconsin Northern bowling tournament came to a close here Monday night.

The last team to take to the lanes was the Gauleyville five of Madison. Much was expected of them but the breaks of the game went against them. When their score was tallied they had 7,228 pins, which will put them in third place for money for fourth place.

Herb Lange, who went so well in the national at Toledo, and who won the singles here last year, knocked off 418 for tenth place. With his partner, Harry O'Brien of Watertown, he got 1,129 for fourteenth place in the doubles.

Tony Schwegler, Madison's favorite, and Jack Backus, together, got 1,129 for thirteenth. Harold Lampert, formerly of this city, and Ted Soehle, laid away 1,122 for nineteenth.

Cook and Kressin of this city got 1,149, which is just outside the sun-shine.

The Esau-Kelles, state champions for 1922, and the Valeria Golden Keys, former teams of Madison, failed to appear.

HOSPITALS GIVING AWAY BABIES MUST OBTAIN LICENSE

Madison.—All Wisconsin hospitals giving away babies for adoption, even with formal consent of the mother, must first be licensed by the state board of control.

This opinion was expressed Tuesday by R. M. Hoyt, deputy attorney general, to the state board of control, after its attention had been called to a Milwaukee hospital which had been acting as a home finding agency for babies of unmarried mothers, in that city.

If any hospital is doing the things which the statutes permit, only licensed home-finding agencies to do, then its acts are unlawful, the attorney general said. The law regarding adoption of children was passed in the interest of child welfare and should be so construed as to effectuate the legislative purpose.

Stoughton Looks Strong for New Baseball League

Things are shaping up rapidly for a league composed of baseball teams of Stoughton, Madison, Lancaster and Platteville. "Sugar" Leckridge of Janesville Tractor fame, now manager of the Wagon City club, is strongly back of the plan.

If the circuit is formed, Stoughton will have one of the strongest clubs, with Bill Lathrop on the mound; Bigelow and Kornek, who also made the hit with the Tractors, and other star players. "Break" has lined up a strong team. Next in line is Platteville, with Lancaster not far behind. Madison does not appear so good as the other three.

WAD RATHER THAN CLUB MAKES RUTH FAMED IN FRANCE

Paris.—The fame of the great Babe Ruth has at last crossed the ocean and French publications have recently been filled with the narrative of the super-slugger's exploits.

He of the 59 home runs is not being excited in France for the number of home runs he has driven the ball over the fence but for the fact that he has made the bankroll of the club owners.

"The swing of his bat is terrible, but the swiftness of his pen is deniable," says the Daily Avenue, referring to the signing of the reported $500,000 for five years' contract.

"The virtuoso of the homerun is also an ace in the business end of it," the Paris Midi comments.

"Five hundred dollars each time for hitting a baseball half as far as I could a golf ball," laments an anonymous writer in the Paris Sport.

"Besides the money which he gathers from baseball, 'le gros Babe Ruth' also earns enough on the stage to keep several families in affluence," says Comedien, a theatrical paper.

Babe Ruth might have gone on forever knocking the covers off baseball, but he reached the home plate after a circuit trip of the diamond, yet he would have never been heard of in France, had he not signed for the reported sum of $500,000 a year.

"Pop" Anson, the old-time baseball star, who was buried in Chicago Sunday, was well known to some of the veterans of the baseball diamond of Janesville. "Cap" appeared here against the Atlanta back in the day with the Forest City team of Rockford.

Before the major league season opened it was announced the ball would not be so lively this year. Well, then, the batsmen are not peepers or the pitchers weaker, for the hard hitting is with us again. However, the pitchers are in great shape and it settles down to the hitting and the ball. What has the ball to say? They got tired of great wallops last year, for too much became monotonous.

"I play basketball at 70 because it keeps me young," says Mrs. Sarah Conrad, St. Louis. "I got along as well or even better than some of the women who are much younger. Most old people are feeble, not because of advanced age but because they do not exercise their bodies. I began going to gymnasium when I was 57." While she may perhaps be the first elderly woman to say this, exercise is keeping many men young.

Injury does not necessarily mean a man must quit athletics. Nicholas Michie, one of the main members of the Hammond Athletic club, has his right arm in a cast, but he is still playing basketball. He has managed to overcome it. He holds his racket like a poker, several inches from the end, changing the hand with little or no follow through. His back-hand stroke is practically a slice, while he has many underhand cuts.

All sports do not mean strenuous athletics. Sunday, on a small track in the city, several mothers were seen playing catch and one of them with their children. Other girls were at play with their brothers. Boys were out on makeshift diamonds. Men lined the banks of Rock river, looking fish. Girls were out in their knickerbockers. The sport that does a world of good is the one that gets the people in open air, where they may exercise freely and breathe deeply.

If we don't miss our bet, "Rowdy" Elliott of the University of Wisconsin will turn out to be the all-star in the history of the Big Ten conference. He is a natural born ball player. When he played in Janesville with the Sunbeam Tractors two years ago, with permission of the university, he made several of the veterans sweat lively.

"Pop" Anson, the old-time baseball star, who was buried in Chicago Sunday, was well known to some of the veterans of the baseball diamond of Janesville. "Cap" appeared here against the Atlanta back in the day with the Forest City team of Rockford.

Before the major league season opened it was announced the ball would not be so lively this year. Well, then, the batsmen are not peepers or the pitchers weaker, for the hard hitting is with us again. However, the pitchers are in great shape and it settles down to the hitting and the ball. What has the ball to say? They got tired of great wallops last year, for too much became monotonous.

"I play basketball at 70 because it keeps me young," says Mrs. Sarah Conrad, St. Louis. "I got along as well or even better than some of the women who are much younger. Most old people are feeble, not because of advanced age but because they do not exercise their bodies. I began going to gymnasium when I was 57." While she may perhaps be the first elderly woman to say this, exercise is keeping many men young.

Injury does not necessarily mean a man must quit athletics. Nicholas Michie, one of the main members of the Hammond Athletic club, has his right arm in a cast, but he is still playing basketball. He has managed to overcome it. He holds his racket like a poker, several inches from the end, changing the hand with little or no follow through. His back-hand stroke is practically a slice, while he has many underhand cuts.

All sports do not mean strenuous athletics. Sunday, on a small track in the city, several mothers were seen playing catch and one of them with their children. Other girls were at play with their brothers. Boys were out on makeshift diamonds. Men lined the banks of Rock river, looking fish. Girls were out in their knickerbockers. The sport that does a world of good is the one that gets the people in open air, where they may exercise freely and breathe deeply.

If we don't miss our bet, "Rowdy" Elliott of the University of Wisconsin will turn out to be the all-star in the history of the Big Ten conference. He is a natural born ball player. When he played in Janesville with the Sunbeam Tractors two years ago, with permission of the university, he made several of the veterans sweat lively.

"Cardigan," which opened at the Myers theater Monday, for a third time, has an appeal to every one in America, for it portrays events in the early history of country in which the young man is interested. Paul Rover's ride and the events leading up to it, and the Battle of Lexington are shown, with such famous characters as Patrick Henry and Alexander Hamilton are also brought in.
